THIS MATTER came on to be heard and was heard by the undersigned Judge of Superior Court of Wake County on motion of Petitioner, the North Carolina State Bar. Petitioner was represented by Brian P.D. Oten. Respondent, Tracy H. Barley, was not represented by counsel. Based upon the consent of the parties, the Court makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent, Tracy H. Barley ("Barley"), was licensed to practice law in North Carolina on August 20, 1993.
2. As of the date of this petition, Barley's last known address of record on file with the North Carolina State Bar is 4412 Cumberland Drive, Durham, NC 27705.
3. The State Bar's preliminary investigation indicates that Barley has mishandled client funds that were deposited into her law firm's attorney trust account.
4. Barley desires to cooperate with the State Bar.
5. A need for prompt action exists to ensure that entrusted funds are not mishandled in the future.

Based upon the foregoing Findings of Fact, the Court makes the following

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Prompt action, pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 84-28(f), is necessary to preserve the status quo while the State Bar conducts an analysis of Barley's trust and operating accounts and to ensure that client funds are not mishandled.
2. Barley should be enjoined from accepting any further funds from or on behalf of clients or other individuals in a fiduciary capacity, from writing checks against any account in which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited, and from directing or permitting any employee or agent to withdraw funds from and/or to draw any checks or other instruments upon any account in which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited until and unless expressly permitted by subsequent orders of the Court.

3. To assist the State Bar's analysis of her trust and operating accounts, Barley should provide the State Bar with records of all accounts in which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited and with all client files requested by the State Bar as set forth below.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Tracy H. Barley is enjoined from accepting or receiving any funds from clients or third parties in a fiduciary capacity, from withdrawing any funds from and/or drawing any checks or other instruments against any account in which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited and from directing or permitting any employee or agent to withdraw funds from and/or to draw any checks or other instruments upon any account in which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited until and unless expressly permitted by subsequent orders of the Court.

2. Barley or any other person having custody or control of records relating to any account into which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited shall immediately produce to the North Carolina State Bar for inspection and copying all of Barley's financial records relating to any account into which client or fiduciary funds have been deposited, including, but not limited to bank statements, canceled checks, deposit slips, client ledger cards, check stubs, debit memos and any other records relating to the receipt and disbursement of client and/or fiduciary funds.

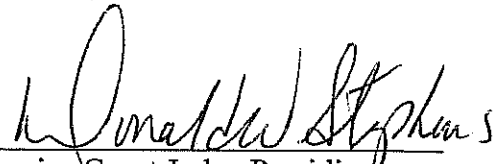

3. Barley or any other person having custody or control over records relating to persons or entities for whom Barley or Barley's former law firm has provided legal services shall produce to the North Carolina State Bar for inspection and copying all records and documents relating to each such person or entity including but not limited to client files, billing statements, memoranda and receipts. Documents relating to current clients shall be produced within 24 hours of demand by the State Bar. Documents relating to closed client files shall be produced within 3 days of demand by the State Bar.

4. If Barley does not have possession of the minimum records required to be maintained regarding trust and fiduciary funds pursuant to Rule 1.15-3 of the Rules of Professional Conduct, she shall direct the bank(s) where her bank account(s) are maintained, within 10 days of the date of this order, to copy and transmit any such missing records directly to the North Carolina State Bar at Barley's expense.

5. Barley shall not serve in any fiduciary capacity, including trustee, escrow agent, personal representative, executor or attorney-in-fact until and unless she is permitted to do so by order of this Court.

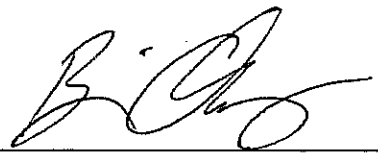

6. This Consent Order of Preliminary Injunction shall remain in effect until further order of this Court.

THIS the 9 day of March, 2010.
